About Huntington's Disease:

The Huntington's Disease Society of America has selected the Colorado Neurological Institute's (CNI) Movement Disorder Program as one of the first HDSA Centers of Excellence for Family Services and Research. Funds raised at this Celebration of Hope event and through the generous contributions of friends and families in the community helps to support the HDSA Center of Excellence at CNI and HDSA programs of research.

One in 10,000 Americans has Huntington's Disease & 200,000 are at risk of developing this deadly disease.

Currently there is no treatment or cure, but there is HOPE with your help!
